

Haig · Brown

FESTIVAL

| 11:00 AM | FAIR OPENS | Location |
|----------|--|-------------------------------|
| 11:00 AM | Music - Andrea Rose | Main Stage |
| 11:00 AM | House Tours every 20 minutes until 12:40PM, space is limited, please sign up. Suggested donation $5 per person. | Haig-Brown House front stairs |
| 11:30 AM | Nature Walk in KingFisher Creek with Chuck DeSorcy from Greenways Land Trust | Greenways Land Trust Booth |
| 11:30 AM | Seaspray Alley Troupe improv performance- The Riddle About a Farmer, A Fox, a Chicken & a bag of Grain | Upper Lawn |
| 12:00 PM | Music - Andrea Rose | Main Stage |
| 12:30 PM | Seaspray Alley Troupe improv performance - The Riddle About a Farmer, A Fox, a Chicken & a bag of Grain | Upper Lawn |
| 12:45 PM | 'Rivers and Restoration' presented by Callie Bouchard and Melody Fraser from Greenways Land Trust | Main Stage |
| 1:00 PM | Official launch for new podcast, Taking Measure, based on Roderick Haig-Brown's Measure of the Year | Main Stage |
| 1:22 PM | Traditional welcome with Lavern Henderson | Main Stage |
| 1:30 PM | Stewardship Awards presented by the City of Campbell River | Main Stage |
| 2:15 PM | Presentation from Cory Cliffe, "Preserving Our Environment is Preserving Our Culture" | Main Stage |
| 2:30 PM | Andrea Rose music to end festival | Main Stage |
| 3:00 PM | FAIR CLOSES | |

Please enjoy and support the wonderful artisans, food vendors and organizations who are represented here today!

Find the new podcast, Taking Measure, at www.haig-brown.bc.ca

Follow the Haig-Brown House on Instagram and Facebook to hear about future events and programs.